

What is the AIT Program?

Ambassadors In Training is a program designed for freshman in their first semester at UTSA to become involved in their university through future service in the UTSA Ambassadors. This program attracts and engages eager first semester freshmen and trains them to be well prepared and informed Ambassadors.

Requirements

- Must be a first-time freshman at UTSA with less than 30 credit hours.
- Must have a SAT combined critical reading and math score of at least 1030 or a minimum ACT composite score of 21.
- Must express desire to contribute to the university.

Contact Information

Special Events Center

UC North 1.224

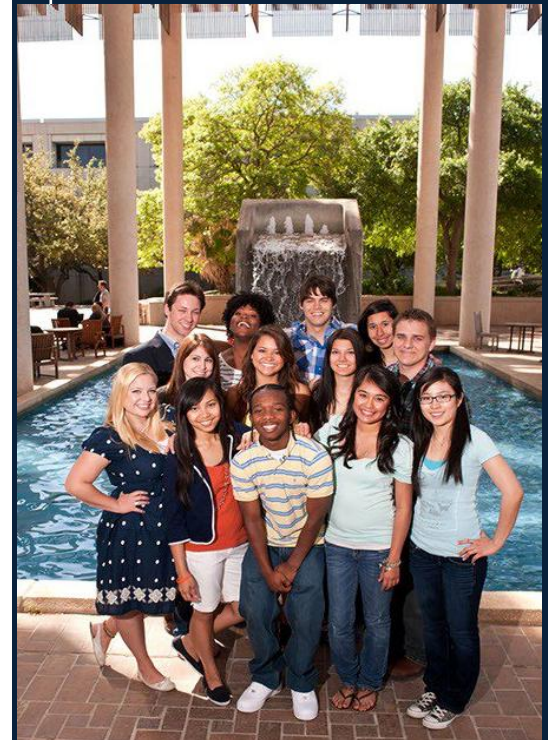

210.458.6110

ambassadors@utsa.edu

UTSA

Ambassadors
In Training

Program

SERVICE – LEADERSHIP - INTEGRITY

Ambassadors History

Established in 1988, the Ambassadors program consists of a select group of 70+ student leaders. These students are committed to service, leadership and integrity. The Ambassadors provide more than 8,000 hours to the university community each year. Ambassadors are enthusiastic students with strong leadership and communication skills, and they are dedicated to representing their university. Members volunteer at many tri-campus events; community and alumni functions; UTSA- sponsored conferences and serve as tour guides for prospective students, parents and other visitors to campus.

Expectations

- Complete a minimum of 3 hours of service each month.
- Attend general meetings that are held Tuesdays, 4:45 - 6:00 p.m.
- Participate in one Ambassador committee meeting per month.
- Take part in major Ambassador activities.
- Maintain a 2.75 GPA and full-time student status.

Selection Process

- Complete and submit the Ambassadors In Training application with a letter of recommendation from a high school teacher, high school administrator or employer.
- Attend the fall Ambassador In Training mixer.
- Interview with current Ambassadors and adviser.
- Be in academic and disciplinary good standings.

Ambassadors' Activities

- Participate in university-wide festivals and functions.
- Participate in commencement ceremonies in the fall and spring.
- Participate in the annual AIT Olympics.
- Assist with UTSA tours.
- Participate in the Big and Little program.
- Participate in team building and goal setting retreats, meetings, events and socials.

UTSA Ambassadors

- Be recognized for their outstanding service to the UTSA community.
- Develop and refine leadership and communication skills.
- Create lasting friendships and affiliations.
- Gain high-profile public relations experience by meeting people, speaking publicly, and representing UTSA.

